

Mr. David Rogelio Colmenares-Páramo
Auditor General of Mexico

On March 15, 2018, the Chamber of Deputies of the United Mexican States appointed Mr. David Rogelio Colmenares-Páramo as Auditor General of Mexico for the 2019-2026 period.

Mr. Colmenares-Páramo is an economist graduated from the Faculty of Economics of the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM), where he has been a professor for 30 years.

Regarding his professional career, he has held relevant positions in the public sector, highlighting the following: Head of the States Coordination Unit at the Ministry of Finance (SHCP); Deputy Auditor General of Mexico responsible for the Federal Resources Transferred to States and Municipalities; Internal Comptroller at the Federal Court of Justice for Fiscal and Administrative Matters, and head of the Regional Coordination and Institutional Relations Unit at the Federal Authority for the Development of Special Economic Zones.

Internationally, he chaired the Organization of Latin American and Caribbean Supreme Audit Institutions (OLACEFS), during the period 2016-2018, and he currently chairs the Working Group on Value and Benefits of the SAIs (WGVBS) and the IntoSAINT Project Group, both part of the International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions (INTOSAI).

Since 1978, Mr Colmenares-Páramo has broad experience as lecturer, teaching subjects such as State Finance and Fiscal Policy, as well as seminars on the public sector.

Due to his vast experience as public officer and in the academia, the Auditor General has different publications, including:

- Equity and fiscal efforts, the Mexican experience (2006)
- Citizen engagement and social control (1994)
- Fiscal federalism in Mexico 1989-1994 (1994)
- Economic and social factors of corruption (1993)

Since 1979 he has collaborated for various local and national print media.

Mr. Colmenares-Páramo was President of the National College of Economists in the period 2000 - 2002.
