

MPP. Aureliano Hernández Palacios Cardel

Superior Auditor of the Mexican Federation

Aureliano Hernández Palacios Cardel holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics from Cristobal Colon University in Veracruz and a Master of Science in Public Policy from Torcuato Di Tella University in Buenos Aires, Argentina, in partnership with the Inter-American Development Bank. He is currently a doctoral candidate in Global History at Casa Lamm.

Throughout his professional career, he has held key positions in the public sector, primarily serving as Head of Administration in the Mexico City Secretariats of Public Works and Services, Health, and Education.

He previously served as Director General and Special Auditor for Federalized Expenditure at the Office of the Superior Auditor of the Mexican Federation.

Mr. Hernández Palacios has extensive experience as a speaker at various national forums on accountability and auditing. He has also participated in international seminars and programs, including the World Bank's Global Anti-Corruption Forum in Washington, D.C., and the U.S. Political Institutions and U.S.-Mexico Relations Program at the University of California, San Diego.